NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T-- Following an 18-month installation of the patented Alcoa- 446 pollution-control system at the company's Rockdale Works, the Central Texas air is a little brighter these days. The stacks are atop the plant's carbon baking facility. The Multi-million dollar installation is one of several major construction and environmental control projects underway at the Rockdale smelter -- the nation's largest.

Engineer Reports On Drainage Problem

The Cameron city council heard an engineer's report on the drainage problem in the city's Green Addition, and voted to turn it over to the Community Development Agency for incorporation into its plan of work for city improvements.

The engineer, Victor Turley, appeared with CDA Director A. W. McCullin and showed a comprehensive report with charts on the drainage problem.

He recommended curb and gutter in some places and concrete channels in others to take care of excess water runoff. Turley said the plan will not solve the whole problem but would take care of severe flooding problems.

The survey included a 36-block area.

Mayor Gene Blake said by turning the report over to the CDA, it may be incorporated into the city's Community Development Program, a five-year program for civic improvements via federal funds.

In other business, council approved sale of the empty lot next to Montgomery Ward for $8600, the lot to be used for a building for a retail store and offices.

Works Supt. Walter Wallace and councilmen Lawrence Zotz and Lincoln Mondrik were appointed to make recommendation on the width of a sidewalk on Travis St. between 1st and 2nd Sts.

Code Inspector Edwin Bigbee gave a taped report on the downtown parking problem, with statements from downtown merchants. Some prefer to leave the situation like it is and others wanted something done about employees parking in front of stores, blocking customers' parking..

Councilman Mondrik made a motion that no action be taken at this time and the motion carried.

The city secretary was authorized to advertise for bids on an alert system for the volunteer firemen. It was pointed out that with such a system, the alarm near the football field could probably be eliminated.

A discussion arose on a motion by Councilman Bob Clark that the city rescind its requirement that all streets will be curbed and guttered before being paved. Councilman Gene Lumpkin, upon whose recommendation the city passed the requirement, dissented with Clark. A suggestion was to add "where feasible" to the motion or to leave the problem up to the council's discretion. Exact wording of the prior Lumpkin motion was in question so the item was tabled until the next meeting.

Council also agreed to a hot mix overlay on Travis from 1st to 4th Sts, and to call for bids on paving of the streets on the east and west sides of City Park.

And council authorized the mayor to write to the Central Texas Council of Governments requesting that Cameron be allowed to participate in its regional health plan.

Area Boy Scouts Set Annual Show

Local and area Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts will be out in full force Saturday for the annual Scout Show to be held at the National Guard Armory from 2 until 5 p.m.

Troops and packs from Cameron, Rosebud, Milano and Rockdale will participate in the show.

Crafts on display will include a signal tower built by a Pioneer unit, rope making, leather craft, and molding crafts, among others, according to District Scout Executive John Blomshield.

Booths will be set up from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. when the show will open. Door prizes will be awarded during the show.

Exhibits will be judged on a standard basis and ribbons will be awarded to troops and packs.

Scouts and Cubs have been selling tickets during the past several weeks, and prizes will be awarded to the boys for ticket sales. The packs and troops will all benefit from the ticket sales.

Boys selling 50 tickets will receive a wrist watch; those selling 30 tickets a Scout knife or leathercraft kit; 20 tickets, a scout canteen or two-cell flashlight; 12 tickets, a penlite flashlight or first aid kit; and 6 tickets, a "Showman Sam" patch for their uniform.

Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Local Cubs and Scouts participating in the show include Cub Scout Pack 713 with Wilbert Lucko as Cubmaster and sponsored by the Lions Club; Boy Scout Troop 791 with Ernest Moore as Scoutmaster and sponsored by First Methodist Church; and Boy Scout Troop 752 with Felix Matula as Scoutmaster and sponsored bs the Knights of Columbus.

The public is cordially invited to attend the show and view Scouting exhibits of projects and current skills.

LATELY. . .

Last Friday, I was among the visitors listening to Fred W. Friendly give a dedicatory speech at the incredible new School of Communications at U of T--Austin.

Friendly was producer in Edward R. Murrow's most productive years as CBS-TV's finest commentator, the man who set standards for visual and broadcast journalism the networks like to emulate and the local stations only imitate.

Friendly is now Edward R. Murrow professor of journalism at Columbia University, a graduate-level journalism school in New York City. Dean Wayne Danielson, head of the School of Communications since 1969, responded to official dedication by Governor Allan Shivers, now chairman of the U of T board of regents.

Ernest Sharp, professor of journalism from Cameron, who is in the U of T Department of Journalism, was likely on hand, but we didn't connect for a visit. I was advised he may assist in staffing a communications research project in my head.

Co-incidentally, I watched Columbia's tennis team last week win 7-0 over Mary Harden Baylor's fine independent club at Belton, led by All-American Henry Bunis, of Cincinatti. Columbia's bunch was on an eight-match tour of Texas.

This Friday, I'll be in Tyler for a brief speech before North & East Texas Press. Presentations for spring seminars at journalism departments at Baylor and SMU are underway.

College students inevitably think size correlates with quality. At least that is feedback from Texas, A&M U, and SMU. They have money and future mixed.

Chamber Changes Name To Cover Milam Area

The Cameron Chamber of Commerce officially changes to the Cameron Area Chamber of Commerce following action by the board of directors at a regular meeting last week.

Purpose of changing the name is to reflect expansion of interests of the local chamber and a desire to serve smaller cities in the Milam County area, according to Mrs. Barbara Smitherman, chamber manager.

Other action included the recommendation by the Civic Improvement Committee that the chamber president appoint a committee to make a feasibility study of a city auditorium, or a similar multi-purpose building.

Other plans of the committee are to promote Christmas decoration for homes in the city, have the city's welcome signs repainted, and to plant uniform shrubs or trees on the approaches to the city. The committee also reported that downtown litter baskets had been painted by the FFA, and had been replaced.

Directors voted to set up an award similar to the one offered Yoe High FFA members chosen Future Farmer of the Year, for the Buckholts FFA chapter. The award consists of a $25 savings bond.

A report from the Trade Committee revealed plans for lining up talent programs to be held on the downtown mall during the year.

Directors passed a resolution for the chamber to become an affiliated member of the Central Texas Council of Governments and to invite the council to become an affiliated member of the local chamber.

The Ladies Committee reported that it will concentrate efforts on encouraging city-wide sports programs, including tennis, volleyball, baseball, etc.

Registration Set For Kindergarten

Pre-registration for the 1975-76 kindergarten classes in the Cameron Public Schools will be held March 26 and 27 at the Ben Milam principal's office.

Registration time will be from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. each day.

Children eligible for kindergarten must be five years of age on or before September 1, 1975. Birth certificates and up-to-date immunization records must be furnished at the time of registration.

Three Sunday Accidents Cause Injuries

Three accidents made news Sunday, two of them at the Central Texas Moto-Cross races and the third near Milano on Highway 79.

The first accident at the races occurred shortly after noon and sent Gerald Hill of Chriesman to a Cameron hospital. He was knocked unconscious in the accident and was admitted to the hospital in undetermined condition.

The second accident at the races occurred shortly after 6 p.m. when Richard A. Grudin, a soldier from Fort Hood, suffered an injured ankle. He was treated and released from a local hospital.

The third accident involved cars driven by Jack Duncan of Austin and Betty Bullock of Milano. Duncan's vehicle was in collision with the Bullock car.

A passenger in the Duncan car, Jency Illich, also of Austin, was taken to Richards Hospital in Rockdale with minor head injuries.

State Highway Troopers Jerry Benson and Don Wardlaw of Rockdale investigated in accident.

Kelley Concert To Benefit New Park

Young and old alike will reap the rewards of Danny Kelley's piano talent as he shares it with his home-town folks April 1 at a benefit concert. At the same time he will be helping to provide complete playground facilities for the new Cameron Neighborhood Park.

The concert will be held at the National Guard Armory. A matinee will be held for junior and senior high students. Tickets will be $1. The evening concert will be at 8 with a reception to follow. Reserve tickets will be $3.50 and general admission $3. Tickets are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Proceeds from the benefit concert will help provide two baseball diamonds, two tennis courts, two basketball courts and playground equipment for the new park.

The park will be adjacent to the O. J. Thomas School and is being planned as part of the city's community development program, A. W. McCullin Sr., director.

There will be 130, 269 square feet included in the park which will be enclosed by a 6 ft. cyclone fence. The project is now in the review stage and expected to get underway by early May.

Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Kelley, is an honor graduate from O. J. Thomas School. He was valedictorian of his 1965 graduating class and also won many national and state music awards.

He began his music career at the age of 3 with Mrs. Francis Cox as his first piano teacher. He is not new to benefits in Central Texas. As a youth he appeared at Baylor University, Lions Clubs, PTA variety shows and the McClosky General Hospital benefit show.

Kelley served as organist at Bethel AME Church until he enrolled in Prairie View A&M. Upon graduation he attended Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore, receiving his Masters degree in Music in 1971.

Scratch Cambodia, Bug North

Things are disintergrating in South Vietnam and Cambodia for ostensible U. S. allies.

We say ostensible because the obtuse logic of Southeast Asian military leaders is no different from poor leadership anywhere else: Take what you can and hold as long as you can, but be sure to always call it patriotism.

We are proposing to extend aid to Cambodia to a June 30 cutoff. Somewhere between $50 and $80 millions will go for ammunition and other materials.

And we are agonizing over what to do in South Vietnam where the attrition is great and daily reducing South Viet military effectiveness.

Are 50,000 American lives going down the tube? The dozens of billions in dollars spent are bad enough. It appears Cambodia is pushing Lon Nol out and accomodating some Communist insurgent junta. Perhaps Prince Sianok, in exile in Red China, can bring off a coalition short of complete Communist takeover.

But what does that gain? His influence would prompt further U. S. dollar input. The same probability stirs in an uneasy Saigon.

We are in Southeast Asia as a result of a "domino theory" which evolved after World War II. By comparison, wars were cheap then. Russia and China still avoid loss of life, since Korea by furnishing arms and advisors while we bleed all over the place.

We started the advisory role which was escalated to a full-scale European War, substantially helicopterized in Asia. It was French-and-Indian, cut-and-shoot style which contained the VC like a sieve. They press on after our withdrawl.

We are never in Cambodia any length of time in any great numbers. We are out. And the silly logic of common sense tells us to scratch Cambodia for the civil war it contains.

South Vietnam is more symbolic. We made our stand there.

That is, we stood. It is also called a civil war. It is also a large source for foodstuffs for China. We are in detente with China, because it compromises Russia and seems better than war of any kind.

This country cannot afford to isolate, as the President told a Notre Dame student body the other day. But it cannot afford propping up Batista-like leadership in Saigon whose popular influence is dependent on the army. This encourages the solemn infiltrators from the North to terrorize further until some of their kind are in coalition in Saigon or in complete control.

Bobby Kennedy said sometime before he died that all this is a question of Southeast Asian self-determination anyway. Contemporarily, he was right. Historically, nothing says Vietnam must divide to buffer Red China. Nothing says a communist Vietnam will end the civil war he identified.

It is cheaper to play the buffer advocate with a few dozen of millions a year there than abandon that Asian coastline for Red access to the South China sea. Vietnam has no navy, but Russia does, the world's most modern.

Amidst detente, the U. S. has little choice but to continue some aid to South Vietnam, if for no other reason than to bug insurgents from the North.

Legislators Propose Vote On Dividing Texas

A senator and a representative revived an old idea for a new reason — dividing big Texas into five states.

Sen. Bob Gammage, a Houston liberal, and Rep. Fred Agnich, a Dallas Republican, proposed a 1976 referendum on the big carve-up.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe immediately frowned publicly on their proposition, and few colleagues were expected to go along in the legislature.

Agnich recommended a division by population into Central, North, South, East and West Texas.

The late former Sen. and Rep. V. E. "Red" Berry of San Antonio regularly recommended dividing Texas, in the interest of bringing liquor-by-the-drink and horse racing to South Texas.

Gammage and Agnich want to increase Texas' clout on the national scene. With five states, they argue, the states of Texas could have 10 U.S. senators and a proportional increase in presidential electoral votes.

Sponsors claim the split-up is authorized by the articles of annexation of the Republic of Texas in 1845.

INTEREST BILL PASSES

Governor Briscoe is pondering whether to approve (or again veto) a bill which opponents in the Senate charged would raise interest further on real estate loans.

The bill (HB 351 by Rep. Ben Munson of Denison) would provide for spreading all interest charges, including "points" now paid in advance over the life of real estate loans. It also would permit loans of $500,000 or more for interim construction or real estate financing to individuals at greater than 10 per cent interest.

Briscoe indicated he may sign because the bill appears to be more specific on the type loan to which it applies than the 1973 bill which he vetoed.

APPOINTMENTS TROUBLES

Trouble over appointments flared like brush fires for the Governor in the Senate.

First, he had to withdraw the nomination of Bryan oilman Ford Albritton Jr. for the College Coordinating Board in the face of almost certain rejection. Then, some liberal senators opposed confirmation of Walter G. Sterling, 73-year-old Houston manufacturer and son of former Gov. Ross Sterling, as a University of Texas regent, after Sterling admitted a brief membership in the John Birch Society.

Meanwhile, Sen. D. Roy Harrington of Port Arthur had threatened rejection of Mrs. W. Smythe Shepherd of Beaumont to the Lamar University board of regents.

About the same time, two liberal senators threatened to vote against former Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo if he is reappointed to Texas Water Rights Commission.

APPOINTMENTS

Governor Briscoe named board of regents members for three more institutions.

Appointed to the Texas Tech University board were Don R. Workman of Lubbock, Robert Lee Pfluger of San Angelo and Charles G. Scruggs (reappointed) of Dallas. Gen. G. P. Disosway of Dallas was placed on the Midwestern University board. Homer Lee Bryce of Henderson, Joe Bob Golden Jr. of Jasper and James Irvine Perkins of Rusk were reappointed at Stephen F. Austin State University.

In addition, Briscoe reappointed Bernard G. Johnson to the Board of Regents for State Senior Colleges.

Wilmer Smith of Wilson, Grady C. Clark Jr. of Corpus Christi and Heino Staffel Jr. of Austin were reappointed to the State Seed and Plant Board.

J. D. Wendeborn of Laredo and James D. Keister of Amarillo were reappointed to the Texas Board of Physical Therapy Examiners.

UTILITIES BILLS SLOWED

Three bills to create a state utilities commission to regulate rates and services landed in a Senate subcommittee after a hearing which stretched over a week in three separate sessions.

Utilities spokesmen attacked the measures as unnecessary, a handicap to their attracting needed capital and no assurance of lower rates.

Proponents by the score urged the proposed new state agency to help them with their rate problems.

Indications are a bill will emerge from the Senate State Affairs Committee eventually, but Chairman Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan said the vote will be "pretty close."

SHORT SNORTS

A bill to prohibit discrimination against the handicapped passed the State Senate.

So did a measure adopting the Interstate Mining Compact, another prohibiting "child sale," and authority for all home rule cities to levy hotel occupancy taxes for tourist-recreational facilities.

Comptroller Bob Bullock said an audit uncovered a $3 million tax liability against a gas production company.

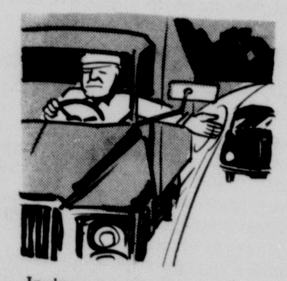
The Senate jurisprudence committee approved a bill providing that losers in libel and slander lawsuits pay reasonable attorneys fees and court costs.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Bum Steer"

With mounting impatience, Walters drove for 15 minutes behind a slow-moving truck on a winding road. Finally the truck driver waved him a go-ahead signal.

But as Walters swung out to pass, a car loomed up from the opposite direction. A collision followed, and Walters landed in the hospital with assorted injuries.



In due course, he filed a lawsuit against the trucking firm.

"Their driver gave me a 'bum steer' when he waved me on," Walters charged in a court hearing.

"But it was an innocent mistake," countered the company. "He was just trying to be helpful. Besides, Walters still had the final responsibility for his own driving."

However, the court granted Walters' claim. The court said that the truck driver, having once undertaken to give directions, had to do so with caution.

Courts generally agree. It is worth noting, however, that Walters had no real chance to see the danger ahead. If he had and took a chance anyhow, he might well have been found negligent himself, regardless of the misleading signal from the truck driver.

In fact, a motorist continues to bear some degree of responsibility even when he is obeying the signal of a traffic officer.

In another case a motorist, waiting at a busy intersection was waved ahead by a policeman who was there directing traffic. He started forward immediately, knocking down a pedestrian who was still in the crosswalk.

Could the motorist escape legal liability by blaming everything on the policeman?

The court said no.

"The driver had a right to rely to some extent on the (policeman)," said the court, "but he had no right to abandon all care."

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

While I've never been able to get a telephone I could call somebody else on but nobody could call me on--something I have long desired--I believe that if the telephone people set their minds to it they might develop such an instrument.

The reason I say this is because of an article I read in the news last week showing how smart the telephone people are. As I understand it, they have succeded in reducing the rate on long distance calls and getting more money from them all at the same time.

Under a new rate schedule allowed by the Federal Communications Commission, the Bell system has announced that a call can now be dialed from coast-to-coast for as little as 22 cents.

Obviously that's a bargain Where else in the world could you get somebody to string a wire from Cameron to Dallas and let you talk over it for 22 cents?

Of course, there are some restrictions on this. You can talk for 22 cents all right, but for only one minute. Talk longer than 60 seconds and the rates goes up immediately. If cattlemen and car manufacturers were as smart as telephone people they wouldn't be losing money today. How many men are there--we won't count women, everybody knows the answer there--in the United States who can limit a long distance call to one minute? Garry Cooper is the only one I can think of and he's not here anymore.

The way it looks to me, this one-minute-for-22-cents deal is like selling an ice cream cone to a kid for a penny for the first lick, but charging 24 cents more if he eats the rest of it. I take my hat off to the telephone people. They know something about human nature, not to mention finance.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Some people believe that a coffin nail will unlock the door to hell.

WHY IS IT?

A man wakes up in the morning after sleeping on an advertised mattress, under an advertised blanket, in advertised pajamas.

He will bathe in an advertised tub, wash with advertised soap, shave with an advertised razor, drink advertised coffee after his advertised juice, cereal and toast (toasted in his advertised toaster), put on advertised clothes and an advertised hat.

He will ride to work in an advertised car, sit at an advertised desk, smoke advertised cigarettes and write with an advertised pen.

Yet this man hesitates to advertise, saying that advertising does not pay. Finally, when his unadvertised business goes under, he will then advertise it for sale!

Prevent Insect Damage

By Bill McCutchen

Each year much home peach and plum production is destroyed by insect and disease damage. If you haven't already started on a spray program to prevent this problem this year you are already one spray application behind, but not necessarily too far behind to get started.

Besides for the dormant oil spray in Decenber or January for control of scale, the first spray applications for the plum curculio and brown rot should begin at pink bud stage, the second spray application should be at petal fall. These should be followed by about three cover sprays at 10 to 14 day intervals.

Malathion plus Captan, wettable Sulfur, or Benlate will do a good job of controlling insects and diseases if used according to directions.

For each gallon of water use 2 tbsp. of Malathion 50% E.C. plus 1 tbsp. Captan 50% W.P. or 2 1/3 tbsp. wettable Sulfer or 1 1/4 tsp. Benlate 50% W.P.

Yes, it was cold enough last Friday to damage the fruit crop. If it gets down to 28 or below and stays there for a few hours it can damage the fruit crop, and it reached 27 degrees in Cameron with a heavy frost. Only time will allow us to determine the extent of the cold injury.

Cattle Prices

This last winter, even though not one of the coldest in recent years has been a rough one for livestock. Dry standing forages were reduced to nothing but filler early in the fall by wet weather, and wet, cool, cloudy weather has stymied winter grasses and clover growth.

In addition to this, low cow prices and high feed and hay prices have prompted producers to neglect to feed livestock as they should and would have done with better markets.

One thing is for sure, you can't starve a profit out of livestock. A good many cattle have died from "hollow-belly" this past winter and many more will fail to calve on schedule as this is one of the first production factors to suffer when nutrition is not adequate.

Cattlemen are in quite a dilema when they don't think they can afford to feed and they can't afford to sell.

Reseach Continues On Seed

LUBBOCK

Research being conducted by U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and Texas Agricultural Experiment Station scientists indicates that treating cottonseed with a seed protectant and a systemic fungicide reduces seedling diseases and increases seedling survival rate by about 1 percent.

Although small, the scientists point out that the increase in survival may be sufficient to prevent the need to replant, reduce other diseases, and increase yield and quality of the crop. The results may well be worth the small increase in treatment cost.

Treatment of cottonseed to reduce seedling diseases is not new. It has been standard practice for many years. From the mid-1950's until 1971 when their use was cancelled, mercury fungicides were used. By 1971 there were a number of effective non-mercurial fungicides available for use.

Soybean Prices Dropping

Soybean prices are expected to be somewhat lower in 1975 but producers are planning to plant more acres.

That's how the soybean situation looks to Dr. Art Gerlow, area economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Farmers will probably get about $6 per bushel for their 1975 crop of beans," points out Gerlow. "That's down some from record prices the past two years but still a good price."

The Texas A&M University System economist expects soybean acreage in the United States to jump more tha n four million acres to a total of 57,106,000 million acres. Some 47 percent of the national increase will be in the Delta states, where a large amount of cotton land will be planted to soybeans.

Ag Loans Increase In Size But Credit Quality Drops

The average size of agricultural loans increased in Texas last year, but credit quality appears to be deteriorating.

That's the result of a recent survey of 100 Texas agricultural lenders by Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Sixty-nine percent of the lenders surveyed said that the average loan size increased the past year. However, that may not be all good," says Hayenga, "since loan repayment was lower at 49 percent of the responding institutions."

Credit quality is slipping, according to the Texas A&M University System economist, because thirty-six percent of the lenders reported more applicants that couldn't be served. "This may be becauses collateral requirements were increased at 28 percent of the financial institutions."

The survey showed the average interest rate was 9.84 percent for feeder cattle loans, 9.57 percent for farm and ranch operating loans, and 8.93 percent for real estate loans.

"Cattle feedlot loan margin requirements averaged 40 percent and compensating balance requirements averaged about 13 percent," notes Hayenga.

On crop contracting, the lenders noted that 36 percent of all farm and ranch customers contracted part of their crops in 1974. Also 15 percent of the agricultural lenders surveyed required at least partial forward contracts for low equity borrowers to obtain loans.

The demand for operating loans increased in 1974 while those for feeder cattle and dairy loans decreased.

What do lenders see in store for 1975?

"About one-half of the lenders and a majority of the bankers expect lower ranch earnings during the first six months of the year, with an increase in spending by farmers and ranches," reports the economists.

The demand for refinancing loans in expected to be higher than usual, according to about half of the lenders surveyed.

Most lenders expect short-terms and long-term interest rates to stay about the same for the next six months, with a possible downward trend.

"About 40 percent of the banks in Texas are soliciting farm and ranch accounts," says Hayenga. "Loan fund availability does not seem to be a problem."

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Farm-facts

Compiled From Sources
Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Agriculture Day Set March 24 . . . Farm Labor Force Increases . . . Red Meat Production Shows Jump . . . Some Words About Onions, Turkeys, Sheep.

National Agriculture Day is March 24. A number of activities are now being planned to point up the importance of agriculture to the economy. Special plans are being readied to acquaint urbanites with the financial facts of life down on the farm. Farmers are also going to get the word on the importance of their business as it relates to the rest of the economy.

All in all, its purpose is to create better understanding between the agriculture producer and the consumer.

AN 11 PER CENT increase in the farm labor force in Texas is reported by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The farm labor force numbered 230,000 during a recent period. The 11 per cent increase for Texas compares with a one per cent decrease on a national basis. Family workers in Texas made up 70 per cent of the farm labor force.

PRODUCTION OF RED MEAT in Texas during January is 21 per cent above a year ago; nationwide, the increase is four per cent more than a year ago. The 243.8 million pounds this January in Texas compares with 201 million pounds in January a year ago.

The increase is significant in that it shows more cattle are being slaughtered, hence a reduction in livestock numbers.

But there still are record numbers of livestock on farms and ranches. The numbers of feeder cattle available are such that little or no price relief is expected for the cow-calf operator until probably 1977.

ONION crop forecast for Texas this spring is 12 per cent below a year ago. Acres for harvest are estimated at 17,500, which is down 17 per cent from a year ago. The crop is two to four weeks later than normal in the Valley due to weather conditions.

Supplies are expected to remain light until later this month and possibly early April. Peak movement should take place in late April or early May. In the Coastal Bend, only a small acreage has been planted and harvest is expected to begin there about mid-April. At Laredo, the crop is making fair progress; harvest is expected to begin about April 10. In the San Antonio-Winter Garden area, the crop is two weeks later than normal, thus harvest will not begin until late April or early May.

SHEEP AND LAMBS on feed in Texas continue to show a dramatic decline as well as some improvement. Drylot sheep feeders with a lot capacity of 2,000 head or more had 62,000 sheep and lambs on feed as of March 1. This is 45 per cent below a year ago, but is 13 per cent above a month ago.

Current intentions to market the 62,000 head are: March 32,000; April 28,000, and May 2,000. April and May intentions are incomplete because additional lambs could still be placed on feed and marketed during these months.

A DECREASE of seven per cent is noted in turkey poult hatchings. Nationwide, the total poult hatch for nine major states dropped 20 per cent from a year ago.

BROILER chick hatchings in Texas are reported 14 per cent below a year ago, but are six per cent above the previous week.

Eggs set for broiler production so far this year are down 12 per cent from a year ago. Nationwide, eggs set for broiler production are down eight per cent from last year.

LISBON

After successfully dismantling its troublesome African empire, Portugal has suddenly run into trouble with one of its last two possession, the eastern half of the island of Timor. Eleven months after revolutionary officers overthrew the old colonialist regime in Portugal, the wind of change has finally caught up with this remote and backward colony at the southern end of the Indonesian archipelago.

RAAHE, FINLAND

Soviet iron ore, dug from a Finnish-developed mine and turned into steel in Soviet-made blast furnaces using a Finnish process, is the basis for a major expansion program at this sprawling steel works. Just 125 miles south of the Arctic Circle, the expansion work, costing one billion Finnmarks represents one of the largest industrial investments in Finnish history.

GENEVA

The 125-nation International Labor Organization is seeking closer checks on ships flying under "flags of convenience." Checks by independent inspectors, if allowed, would be the first comprehensive survey carried out on these ships, which make up over 20 percent of the world's merchant fleet and yet are registered in a handful of small countries.

ALGIERS

The OPEC summit gave the oil exporters' organization political weight and was also the occasion for a dramatic and unexpected reconciliation between two quarrelling member countries, Iran and Iraq. Hard decisions affecting oil supplies and prices were left on one side, although the OPEC heads of state and government leaders did make clear they were not going to bow to pressures to reduce prices.

NANKING, CHINA

In China, ostensibly one of the world's most egalitarian societies, a shop assistant sells watches she herself could only buy after saving an entire year's wages. An imported watch is the most prized status symbol in the People's Republic and the best--a famous Swess model--costs more than $350.

CARACAS

Poverty and destitution are widespread in Venezuela, Latin America's richest republic. Despite the sudden oil wealth which has thrust the nation into international prominence in the past year, "Marginalidad" remains a pressing domestic problem. "Marginalidad" is officialdom's euphemism for extreme poverty, and officials admit that it afflicts 40 percent of the inhabitants.

WASHINGTON

An attempt to draft a code of ethics for giant U. S. corporations in Latin America has ground to a halt--another casualty of the faltering dialogue between Washington and its western hemisphere allies. An international working group seeking to draft the code met in November and January but no date was set for a final third meeting, despite an appeal by Secretary of State Henry Kissinger that the work continue

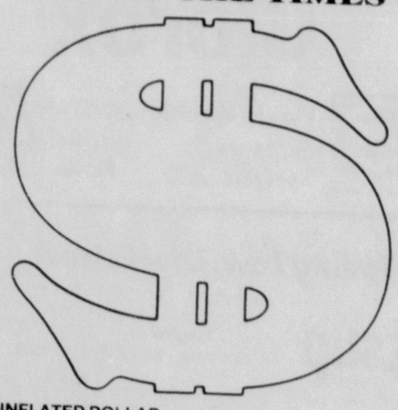
SIGN OF THE TIMES



THE INFLATED DOLLAR
You see its effects on your food prices, your housing prices and most other things . . . just as Texas Power & Light Company sees it on the cost of everything necessary to produce and supply your electricity.

FUELS COST MORE
To produce electricity, TP&L generating plants must use fuels – natural gas, lignite coal and oil. In 1952, the price of gas, the principal fuel used by TP&L, was just five cents per 1,000 cubic feet. In 1974, the price was 48 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. The Company's total fuel bill in 1974 was $89 million, more than 64% higher than in 1973.

CONSTRUCTION COSTS MORE
To counter uncertain supplies and spiraling costs of gas and oil, TP&L is building new generating plants which will use lignite coal and nuclear materials. Ironically, lignite-fueled plants cost more than twice as much per kilowatt as gas-fueled plants and the cost of nuclear plants is still higher.

FINANCING COSTS MORE
Just as most people must borrow money to build their homes, TP&L must borrow money to construct its power plants and other facilities. While the interest rates the Company must pay on borrowed money are now somewhat lower than the all-time high of 10⅛% in 1974, they are still about twice the rates of 1964.

You and all TP&L customers expect a reliable supply of electric power and we're constantly working to meet this responsibility. However, because of the squeeze of rising costs, it is inevitable that the price of electricity must be increased in the future.

Sports Spotlight

By Forrest Guess

The 40th running of the Yoe Relays went off Saturday morning at the Yoe Stadium after a cold and misty morning.

Brenham stole the show for the 14 team running and tallied over 100 points for the days efforts. Two records were broken and one was tied. For a cold day and poor weather conditions, the feeling for fast times and record setting was absent.

Yoe didn't fare too well in the runnings and faced a balanced attack from the 3A schools. The 3A schools dominated the winnings with Marlin taking second with 80 points.

In the hardball area, Coach Forsythe had the following comments on the past week's schedule.

"We are progressing well and we have gained some good experience by playing some good teams. If we get beat in our practice games, I want it done by the best teams."

"We haven't had any workouts for the past week but the game experience has been real good. We plan to workout for the remainder of the week and return next week for a game."

"We won consolation with fine work by Gerry Heitman and good hitting. Gerry is doing an outstanding job for us all around, and he is only a sophomore."

The Yoe girls ended their volleyball season with a 10-11 win-loss record for the varsity and a 9-2 win-loss record was tallied by the varsity.

Caldwell took the zone and will play for the district honors when they face Westlake in a game scheduled for this week.

Pat Short, coach for Yoe High, said, "The entire team had an outstanding year. The most exciting game of the season is when we were able to defeat Giddings in a return match."

The Yoe junior varsity baseballers will be in action this Thursday at 4 p.m. when they face the Killeen JV at Yoe stadium.

Killeen 'Roos Pop Yoe 9-0

The Killeen Kangaroos destroyed the Yoemen in a practice game Monday, which unveiled nine runs on nine hits. Three of the hits sailed over the fence for a 9-0 whipping on the return game. Yoe was victorious in the first meeting between the teams and outlasted the Roos, 4-3.

The Yoemen mark a 4-2 season record and the win against the Yoemen tallied an even 500 mark at 6-6 for the Roos.

The game was scheduled to be a double header but after the weather condition continued to worsen the second of the twin bill was called off.

The Yoemen never ignited their power game but watched the Roos swing the wood in their winning effort.

The Roos started their efforts early in the contest, when Matt McCurrin and Dale Hendricks found passage to first base on hard hit singles. Richard Boone took the walk to first followed by a bobbled hit by Bobby Joyner which allowed McCurrin to cross the home plate rubber.

Larry Alexander, centerfielder, went to the plate to destroy the hardball when he smacked it over the 310 mark for the homerun and advanced three runners.

The Roos displayed more power in the second inning as Steve Tucker led off the hitting with a walk. Followed by a single by Boone. Barry Joyner took the stick and hurled the ball into orbit and past the fence for the second homerun and driving in two runners.

Richard Boone took passage around the bags when he placed a one man homer in the fourth inning to end the Roo scoring attack.

Steve Tucker was the winner on the mound and Gary Hornung flashed the hardball and was the loser. Tucker gave up only two hits and striking out two Yoemen. Hornung gave up eight runs on five hits striking out two Roo batters.

Summer Camp Open For Youths

Baseball season is right around the corner and Little League is making plans for its 1975 Summer Camp program.

Dutch Schroeder, Little League Summer Camp Director at Waco, said the camps are open to boys 9 through 15 years of age, whether affiliated or not with a Little League team. Located on the campus of Baylor University, the camp session is a combination of sound baseball instruction and a healthful all-around recreational program.

The camp experience is geared to building confidence and ability in each youngster while providing solid fundamental baseball knowledge.

In addition to baseball instruction, youngsters attending the camp participate in swimming, tennis, basketball, and other recreational activities. The latest baseball training aids are utilized.

Instructors and counselors for the camp sessions are drawn from the ranks of college coaching and physical education program and from school guidance personnel. All are selected for their ability to work with and understand the problem of youngsters of Little League age.

Each youngster attending the summer camp has the opportunity to make new friends as he participates in training, scheduled games and recreation. Coach Schroeder said applications are being accepted for either of the three camp sessions, beginning June 15, June 29, and July 13.

Youngsters and parents interested can obtain information and applications by writing: Summer Camp Director, Little League Baseball, T.S.T.I., Box 1999, Waco, TX 76705.

Yoemen Take Consolation Title

Yoe slammed back to back wins to claim the consolation title in the Hearne Baseball Tournament Saturday after dropping their first round game to A&M Consolidated 5 to 1.

In the early morning game Saturday, Yoe faced West and behind 7 innings of shut out baseball by Joey Mondrik the score ended 9-2.

The Pirates felt the damage of hard hitting Joe Smitherman as he cracked the wood and drove in 4 runs in the first and third innings.

Pozensik was the losing pitcher for the West Trojans and January suffered the loss for La Vega who went for the 7 innings.

Joe Smitherman claimed top honors during the tournament and was picked to the All-Tournament team.

Legend has it that, long ago, the dogwood came into bloom on Calvary and that, afterwards, a cross was implanted into the flower itself, to remain for all time. You can see it if you look closely, rust brown against the white of each individual blossom.

Many of us carry crosses, faint like the dogwood's emblem but with us, nevertheless. Somehow, in this Lenten season, we become particularly conscious of them and of our need for help—a certain kind of help, that can be found only through the things we learn in Church.

The Church doesn't pretend to banish our cares and woes. But, its teachings realistically consider the experiences of life itself. No matter what our personal cross may be, we seem able to bear its burden with more strength.

Lent is a wonderful time in which to begin making church-going a regular part of your life—if you haven't already.

Peanuts Pack Protein Power

WHAT A NUT!

If you're like most Americans, you eat about eight pounds of peanuts, in various forms, every year, yet probably know very little about them.

For one thing, they're not really nuts at all, but legumes like peas or beans. For another, peanuts are approximately 26 percent protein (twice that of frankfurters), high in niacin, thiamin and phosphates and relatively low in saturated fats. Inexpensive to buy, peanuts are one of the six basic American farm crops valued at over $400 million.

People usually think of peanuts as a snack food, but you can eat them in one form or other for breakfast, lunch and dinner. You even can drink them: blend a small banana, 1/4 cup smooth peanut butter, 1/2 pint vanilla ice cream and 1 cup milk until smooth for two servings of a real go-go breakfast drink. At lunch time, spread toasted English muffins with peanut butter, lay strips of prepared bacon across the top and serve with soup. For dinner, make crispy, crunchy hamburgers by pressing each patty into a bowl of finely chopped peanuts until covered and then broil.

Originally grown in South America, the protein-rich peanut came here by way of Africa, where they had been traded by the Spanish explorers. It took the Civil War to get peanuts out of the slave quarters and into the pockets of Union soldiers. The boll weevil played its part, too. Cotton crop failures led southern farmers to plant peanuts. The rest is history.

A nutty story? You bet — nutty but nice for all Americans who now can enjoy this super food in their daily diets.
